REACHING KAUNAS FROM VILNIUS AIRPORT

Vilnius airport is located 6 km from the centre of Vilnius, while train and bus stations (both of them are next to each other) are centre-located. You can use one of the options for reaching Vilnius bus or train station:

- There is a direct train going frequently from Vilnius airport to Vilnius train station. To reach the train stop, follow the outside directions at the airport. The ticket will cost 1 Euro and can be purchased on the train.
- You can take an Airport Express. A single-trip ticket will cost 1 Euro and can be purchased on the bus.
- You can take city bus No. 1 and go as far as the bus stop "Stotis". A single-trip ticket will cost 1 Euro and can be purchased on the bus.
- You can take a taxi:

Book a taxi at: www.etaksi.lt/en. You will depart from the "Airport" stop and arrive at "Stoties" stop (the price range is 5 - 12 Euros). Take a taxi within the airport area. Straight away ask the driver for the ride price (or else you may be charged like 15 Euros!) and ask for a receipt.

In Vilnius, at the train / bus station (the bus terminal is opposite the train station, on the left) you will take train / bus to Kaunas. Buses to Kaunas run approximately every half an hour and cost about 6 Euros. Please remember that to travel with private drivers who offer their services may not be safe. Check the bus routes and exact timetables at: www.autobusubilietai.lt.

Train departures are not so frequent. A ride by train costs 5-7 Euros. You can check train routes and timetables at: www.litrail.lt.
