

Lilia Shevtsova, Russian political analyst, non-resident Senior Fellow at the Brookings Institution (Washington) and Associate Fellow at the Chatham House (London). She is the member of the Boards of the Institute for Humanities (Vienna), Finnish Centre for Excellence in Russian Studies (Helsinki), Liberal Mission Foundation, and New Eurasia Foundation (Moscow); member of the Editorial Boards of the journals “American Interest”, “Journal of Democracy” and “New Eastern Europe“. Shevtsova was Senior Associate of Carnegie Endowment for International Peace (Washington) and Moscow Carnegie Center, founding chair of the Davos World Economic Forum Council on Russia’s Future. She served as Chair of the Program on Eurasia and Eastern Europe, SSRC (Washington), member of the Social Council for Central and Eastern European Studies and member of the Council on Terrorism of the Davos World Economic Forum. She contributes to the global leading media, including the Foreign Policy, FT, Washington Post, Mond Diplomatique, Fokus, El Pais, Survival, and Journal of Democracy.

Shevtsova is author of Yeltsin’s Russia: Myths and Reality; Putin’s Russia; Russia –Lost in Transition: The Yeltsin and Putin Legacies; Lonely Power (Why Russia Has Failed to Become the West and Why the West Is Weary of Russia), Russia: Change or Decay (in co-authorship with Andrew Wood), Crisis: Russia and the West in the Time of Trouble.